

Fred's Teen Film Workshop SUMMER 2010 – Application Form

FIRST, A WORD ABOUT FRED...

Fred's Film Workshops are two-week intensive media production workshops for teens. Fred is committed to providing opportunities for teens to discover their voice and develop their narrative and production skills through the art of filmmaking.

Fred is fun. Fred is passionate.

Fred is also constantly evolving. The teens that participate in the workshops each summer are building Fred - animating him, providing his true character. Fred is a reflection of them, their passion, their artistry, their films.

Fred is... waiting for you. Find out more at www.fredsfilms.com/programs.
